

2019

HISTORY

M.A. Part-I Examination (DODL)

Paper : III

(History of India : 1757-1857)

Full Marks : 90

Time : 4 Hours

*The figures in the right-hand margin indicate marks.Candidates are required to give their answers in their own words as far as practicable.*Answer any six questions: 15×6=90

1. Evaluate the role of Ram Mohan Roy in the light of social reform. 15
2. What role did the Christian missionaries play in spreading education in colonial Bengal of the first half of the 19th century? 15
3. What were the ideologies of the Raj? 15
4. How did the racial discrimination play an important role in the British administration and Army? 15

5. Analyse the background of the third Battle of Panipat in 1761. How did the Battle decide the fate of the Maratha Power? 10+5
6. Analyse the impact of Railways on rural economy of India. 10+5
7. Explain the nature of the Young Bengal Movement. Why did they fail to penetrate the mainstream of the society? 15
8. What were the factors that led to the Santhal rebellion in 1855? 15
9. Write an essay on the condition of indigenous education in India in the first half of the 19th century. 15
10. How did the nationalist historian interpret the impact of British rule in India? 15