

Details of two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution during the year 2020-21

Best practice I

Title of the Practice: National, International and State level Webinar.

Objectives of the Practice: The objectives of the College are to provide knowledge in different field and to aware health and hygiene to come out from the threat of Covid 19.

The Context: The whole country was in threat and mankind almost was forgetting the healthy sway of life. It encourages the students, teachers, researchers and those who attended a lot of information to aware and build up a constructive society.

The Practice: Webinar is one of the important resources for learning during the Covid time when life was almost pent up. It is unique as it provides a range of knowledge in different field. Especially the Webinar on Cancer awareness helps people to be cautious about health.

Evidence of Success: Sewnarayan Rameshwar Fatepuria College proves a successful performance because of presence of a large number of people. When the entire world is pent up in threat of Covid, the programmes of Webinar put a new light of focus of oxygen for new learning.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required: The 1st Semester students are not admitted in the Webinar time as the session runs late.

Best practice II

Title of the Practice: Online Classes and Submission of Study Materials.

Objectives of the Practice: The objectives of the College are to provide knowledge in stipulated syllabus and aware that education is a knowledge of learning. What ever obstacles it might be education can not be stopped.

The Context: The whole country was in threat and mankind almost was forgetting that the education is the inevitable part of life. Just at this juncture the online classes spread a new way of getting learnt and educate.

The Practice: Online Classes is one of the important resources for learning during the Covid time when life was almost pent up. It is unique as it provides a range of knowledge in specific syllabus. Specially providing of study materials help the students to continue their education and .to reach on their final goal.

Evidence of Success: Sewnarayan Rameshwar Fatepuria College proves a successful performance because of presence of almost all the students. When the entire world is pent up in threat of Covid, the heart and soul effort of the teachers as well as of the students through online process makes a smooth running of teaching-learning process.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required: The College is situated in rural area and for that the students have to face Internet problem. Besides, sufficient tools were not available.